

Dr.MJDCA is the creative and artistic arm of Trinity Universal Center. Dr.MJDCA's major components are: educational, which addresses the special needs of at-risk students and their parents; psychological, which addresses the challenges with the individual and the family that impede positive development; and developmental, which fosters family growth and aids individuals and families in enhancing self-esteem, motivating them to become productive citizens.